

February / March

Participation in Indian Engineering and Technology Fair (IETF) in Bangalore, - under the roof of BMBF, together with institutes of TU - Braunschweig. Under the "motto India and Germany-Strategic Partners for Innovation" GIBC projects were presented.

IETF GLOBAL
2009

Production Technologies for Renewable Energies in India

Contact Information:

PD Dr.-Ing. Christoph Herrmann (IWF), c.herrmann@tu-bs.de
Prof. Dr.-Ing. Prof. h.c. Stefan Böhm (ifs), s.boehm@tu-bs.de

March 2009

Mumbai:

Discussion of strategic projects in collaboration with GTZ Delhi:

March 2009

Initiation and control of cooperation between IIT (Indian Institute of Technology) in Mumbai and TU Braunschweig CSP (concentrated solar power)

March 2009

GIBC workshop on CSP (concentrated solar power) in Valsad / Gujarat / India

March 2009

CeBIT Hannover 2009 under the auspices of GIBC.

April 2009
Industry Fair 2009

Extension product portfolio GIBC to "Virtual Office"

Offer Indian companies an address, virtual offices and office / conference facilities on demand.

Pilot project Promap. Analysis and advice for an M & A of the Indian company Acwa Automatics / Acom Group with a German partner. Study was conducted with the support of the student advisory company Janus. The Hanover area identified as the partner companies showed low interest. Extending the analysis to the region of Lower Saxony has been postponed.

April 2009
Indo-German ICT conference NASSCOM / Bitkom in Köln

July 2009
World BPO Forum in New York
Lecture on BPO Germany / Europe and panel discussion
Organiser World BPO Forum India

Sept. 2009
IdeenExpo 2009

GIBC organized the participation of Indian students to the IdeenExpo 2009 in Hannover. The Ideenexpo is the biggest Science & technology show for young people in Germany/ Europe. In 2009 280 000 young people visited th show within 9 days. The show stands under the protection of Mr. Chr. Wulf, president of Germany. 3 studentgroups attended the fair: BITS Pilani and groups from the University of Pune. BITS (Birla Institute of Technology and Science) Students presented humanoid robot. Sinhgad College of Engineering, Pune presented a hybrid concept car. University of Pune presented an electronic sniffer dog.. GIBC cared for selection of projects, sponsors, agents and presentation. The newly inaugurated Indian Ambassador Sudhir Vyas participated in the launch-event.

Indian Ambassador Sudhir Vyas, MP. Christian Wulff, a Minister Mrs. U. von der Leyen, managing director of IdeenExpo Wolfgang Weidemann and students of BITS Pilani.

President from Germany Christian Wulff and Studenten from Sinhgad College of Engineering, Pune. With Hybridcar.

The students had the opportunity to demonstrate their projects to the chief research manager of Volkswagen and the Volkswagen top management.

With Mr. Wolfgang Porsche, at Porsche Museum, Stuttgart

With Prof. Ferdinand Piëch, Porsche Museum, Stuttgart

Development Director hybrid vehicles Volkswagen, Dr. Jochen Boehle in the Indian concept vehicle

Workshop on "Green manufacturing" in BITS Pilani with TU Braunschweig

GIBC initiated and organized collaboration of TU Braunschweig with the best private university in India: BITS Pilani. Together, the BMBF and the Indian Ministry DST (Department of Science and Technology) funded projects planned as part of renewable energy.

October 2009

Introduction of the resettlement site of Hanover and Niedersachsen: "Germany-Access to Europe" in Pune and Mumbai GIBC conducts Colloquiums in Pune and Mumbai on the topic. Supported by BDB MOU partners (business development bureau, based in The German Embassy Mumbai supports these projects.

W. Hölting, Sudhir Patil (Managing Director of Hannover Fairs India and Indian representative Niedersachsen) Benno Graw (Counsellor of the German Consulate in Mumbai) Merlyn Fernandes (Manager Hannover Fair of India)

Sept. 2009

Colloquium on the business location in Hanover Pune, Pune coorganisiert by BDB

Carsten Spichalsky Head of R & D Volkswagen Pune, RV Krishna (MD. BDB Pune) Prof. Christoph Herrmann Director NFF (Niedersächsische vehicle research) and IMF (Institute for Machine Tools and Production Technology Braunschweig)

2009

Colloquium on the business location in Hanover Pune, coorganisiert by TiE (The Indus Entrepreneur), Kochi / Kerala

December 2009

Energy fair in Mumbai.

Organization of a symposium on "renewable energy" with contributions by TERI (The Energy and Resource Institute of India)

India's Energy Independence - Need for Renewable Energy,
Timber Tower

Wind turbine Wood Poles

Gadhia - Solar

Solar Concentrators

GFR DigiControl / Wiedemann KG

Energy Efficiency and Building Management

Business Development Bureau, Pune

The Indian Market for Renewable Energies

Colloquia on business in Germany (German: Gateway to Europe) in collaboration with business development office in Pune and VDMA India with about 150 participants in Mumbai, Pune and Ahmedabad with good prospects to concrete and initiation of business partnerships between India and Hannover / Niedersachsen.

